(And I sit here waiting and I comb my hair)
Wait in line, your time will come
Says the man, he waves his gun
Carpet burns beneath my name
Your finger prints, I'll play your game

I'll play your game
Just pull me under
I'll play your game
Just pull me under
Just pull me under

And the silver sea
Rushing over me

Cast your blood
To my open veins
I won't tell them
We'll just play your game

I'll play your game
Just pull me under
I'll take the blame
Just pull me under

Close the curtains
Finger prints in dust
She's been drowning
And I drink her loss

I'll take the blame
Just pull me under
I'll play your game
Just pull me under
I'll play insane
Just pull me under
