I feel it in my bones
Boiling within
I feel it in my veins
And I am weakened

Let me say this loud and clear
I'm not going anywhere
No, I will stand here
'Til we find a resolution

I'm under your sheets
You're under my skin
Tell me how we're even
Or how this even began

It's just one look
It's just one night
It's just one touch
It feels so right

I feel it in my bones
Boiling within
I feel it in my veins
And I am weakened

I feel it in my bones
Boiling within
I feel you in my veins
My favourite sin

I'm in love with the way that you move
So step inside and kick off your shoes
Baby, here there are no rules

Out of control, we're out of our minds
But don't expect too much of my time
I'll take flight with the morning light, light

It's just one look
It's just one night
It's just one touch

It feels so right

Baby I can't stop myself when I'm by your side, your

It's just one look
It's just one night
It's just one touch
It feels so right

I feel it in my bones
Boiling within
I feel you in my veins
And I am weakened

I feel it in my bones
Boiling within
I feel you in my veins
My favourite sin

Tonight I'm dragging it out into the open
And I will stand my ground 'til the last word's been spoken
Show me your desire like it's going out of style
Baby, make it worth my while

I feel it in my bones
Boiling within
I feel you in my veins
And I am weakened

I feel it in my bones
Boiling within
I feel you in my veins
My favourite sin

I feel it in my bones
Boiling within
I feel you in my veins
And I am weakened

I feel you in my bones
Boiling within
I feel you in my veins
My favourite sin
