[Verse 1]

I fall in love with distance,
I chase it with persistence,
And ain't nobody gonna tell me
I can't win this
I used to sleep alone
And the you came along,
(You came along)
Thought you'd stick around,
But now you're gone,
(But now you're gone)

[Chorus]

I'm not ready to move on
Baby you're the one
Without you I feel so undone

But I am ready to be free
Of all the things that weigh me down
And knock me off my feet
This is my apology, my apology

[Verse 2]

I took you for granted,
You don't believe in second chances
There's a line in-between
That we shouldn't be crossing
Used to be on my side
Now all we do is fight
(All we do is fight)
I wanna tell you how much I miss you
But I can't let go of my pride

[Chorus]

I'm not ready to move on
Baby you're the one
Without you I feel so undone

I am ready to be free
Of all the things that weigh me down
And knock me off my feet

This is my apology, my apology

[Bridge]

And if you decided to come back tonight
I'd be waiting with, with open arms
And though it's not right
I just want to try one more time
One more time to change your mind
Change your mind

I'm not ready to move on...

[Chorus]

I'm not ready to move on
Baby you're the one
Without you I feel so undone

I am ready to be free
Of all the things that weigh me down
And knock me off my feet
