Well I guess I never saw her in that way Well I guessed everything always ends that way Oh I guess I should have tried to make her stay Keep on coming Keep on coming Some people live their lives to understand Some people live their lives to take command But the day has come when I must make my stand Keep on coming Keep on coming Don't ever change Don't ever change Change Change If I can't get to you It's just the way you tried to hold me down You got a hold on me and I'm scared to make a sound And you know everything I ever tried to say Come on keep on coming please don't walk away You got a hold on me and I'm scared to let you go
