"Engulf"

Let's take this moment slow
Watch it burn tonight
You can come through my window
This house is on fire, but I'd rather die
Engulfed by all the smoke than embrace this part alone

Are we finished now?

So this is what fear feels like when you regret
Every silver cup you drank from
Every time that you took a hit
Spinning to the side
Hun, we chose to take this ride
Don't turn and tell me now
That "we're finished now"

Is what I want not right
If thoughts are real tonight?
I don't wanna see who I am or what I've made
We're both here anyway
Two souls at play, babe our hearts can't hide
And I refuse to explain why
Why should I?
Why should I when we're finished now?

We're finished now
