We've made it this far and we'll get out alive
I'm only glad we're doing fine
My mind is flooding with dreams I can't discard Maybe with a small town hope we'll get through this mar

If we say what's on our minds
Will it mean a thing tonight?
Don't you wait or you'll fall behind
And we'll be singing "live your life"

My soul recalls a thought I can't put down
We pick it up and carry the strain around
Yes I know I can't get things right with every verse
No, you can't cut through each time, the words only get worse

We all fall into parts
We all fall into parts

If we say what's on our minds
Will it mean a thing tonight?
Don't you wait or you'll fall behind
And we'll be singing "live your life"

Live your life
