Once you're lost in twilights blue
You don't find your way, the way finds you

Tempt the fates, beware the smile
It hides all the teeth, my dear and what's behind them

So glad you could stay forever
So glad you could stay forever
So glad you could stay forever
So glad you could stay forever

He steps between the trees, a crooked man
There's blood on the blade, don't take his hand

You warm by the firelight, in twilights blue
Shadows creep and dance the walls, he's creeping too

So glad you could stay forever
So glad you could stay forever
So glad you could stay forever
So glad you could stay forever

So glad you could stay
So glad you could, so glad
So glad you could stay
So glad you could stay forever
