"A Dream In Infra Red"

As you woke this morning and opened up your eyes did you notice the tear-stains lining your face were mine.

Don't you wonder, can't you see what's happening to our lives?

I can't keep living this masquerade
when my lonely eyes see only your face at night.

* I only see in infra red, I can't dream anymore

Can't you see I need too (to)

I can't stand the pain

You've gathered a kind of lunatic but I know what to do with it.

It's plain as black and white.

I'm like a hungry criminal and your protection is minimal, so minimal.
