I thought that you should see
See the beginning
Constant, I call night
Used to be the my running part
Y'all should dim the sky today

Swim against the tide
The flow, we're going, it's in your eyes

Don't listen to them
Don't listen to them
Why, she made it
And talk about it

A renaissance, rising from the ashes
A better life, tomorrow bites
The world within your blackest eyes

Don't listen to them
Don't listen to them
Why, she made it
And talk about it

A revolution in disguise
Mesmerized by shallow roads
Flowing, I come back to scream
I've seen this laser beam

A revolution in disguise
Mesmerized by shallow roads
Flowing, I come back to scream
I've seen this laser beam
