I might be less than enough
But Iâ€™m closer than u thought I would be,
I fold cause Iâ€™m scared to move on and u know it.

There might be more than u know,
But u never even try to believe,
I wish that u would lie to me,
So I wonâ€™t have to make u stay,

Youâ€™ve seen the best of me,
U know I canâ€™t forget how this feel,
Why would I try to run.

Well I try to leave before I break down and weep before u,
I know u have so much to say,
Maybe u should try to make me believe in everything
you've said,
When I see u again.

You've seen the worst of me,
U know I dint feel no pain no more,
Why would I try to run.
