Your loves unrequited
I can't just can't stop giving
I'm lost I'm divided
Can't keep on forgiving
My heart keeps on fighting
It's the lack of love I'm missing
I'm cut I'm bleeding
To break free and give me relief

I want you to disappear into the dark
Captured in your eyes you left a mark
As I float away it pulls apart

Pull me back to earth x2

Your love and illusion
For your lies I keep on living
It's all in my confusion
Can't see straight I'm tripping
I'm hurt I surrender
Put yourself in my position
I'm cold I'm defeated
But I get Stronger and stronger
This feeling gets stronger

Pull me back to earth
I want you to disappear into the dark
Captured in your eyes you left a mark
As I float away it pulls apart

Pull me back to earth

Far Away
Far Apart
Far Away
Far Apart
Pull Me Back To earth x6
