A headless man in a long gray coat
Without anything beside the death in his heart
Seems to appear from the nowhere
Out from the graves, out of the tombs

No one could ever keep his life
No one ever could keep his head
He's got the death in his heart

And he rides into the night
He rides yeah he rides the night
As long as he suffers
Beyond salvation

And he rides into the night
He rides yeah he rides the night
As long as he suffers
Beyond salvation

On a puissant grey steed he rides the night
Without anything beside the death in his heart
Seems to appear from the nowhere
Out from the graves, out of the tombs

No one could ever keep his life
No one ever could keep his head
He's got the death in his heart

And he rides into the night
He rides yeah he rides the night
As long as he suffers
Beyond salvation

And he rides into the night
He rides yeah he rides the night
As long as he suffers
Beyond salvation

Do you wanna die
Do you wanna fight
Just keep the death in your heart

Do you wanna die
Do you wanna fight
Just keep the death in your heart
In your heart
