Are you brother or betrayer?
Are you friend or are you foe?
Play the game and hedge your bets
Bleed us dry then kiss Tourette

Then you do, then you don't
Now you will, now you won't
Tell me who you're trying to be

You've got an identity crisis
Look into our eyes
We see through your lies
You're so image indecisive
Look into our eyes
We see through your lies

Are you victim are you slayer?
Are you serpent are you dove?
Kiss the sky then paint it black
Hold me close then stab my back
Are you user or abuser?
Are you saved or dead in sin?
Use the ones who love you most
Like parasite to host

Make your choice and nail
Your colours to my heart (X4)
Tell me who you really fear?
