Don't you dare tell me who I am, or what I need to be.
This is what I'm destined for, there's no saving you from me.
Don't you dare think that you're, the only girl for me.
This is not what we planned, you'll never be just what I need.

So tell me dear what are your fears,
Is it the dark that hides inside,
Or is it the emptiness that resides inside your eyes?
Move!

This will be over, we can't go on.

This will be over, we can't go on, we can't go on
Don't say forever, don't say forever.
I won't be here for long.
I won't be here for long.
I won't be here for long.

I'll never be the one, who takes you by the hand.
The one who guides you through who guides you to the
end. (x2)

This will be over, we can't go on, we can't go on
Don't say forever, don't say forever.
I won't be here for long.
I won't be here for long.
I won't be here for long.

This will be over, we can't go on,
Don't say forever,
I won't be here for long.

This will be over, we can't go on,
I won't be here for long.
I won't be here for long.
