I'm breathing for the first time, 'cause you were all that's on my mind
And I can't hear your voice I'm singing for the first time, 'cause I can't sleep on winter nights
Without you by my side

Singing your chorus, and I hope that you hear my words
'Cause they are all that's holding me to you right now
So tell me that I'm alright, so I can sleep tonight
In this bed that we share, I lie alone

As the wind beats against my skin, I'll pray for your return
'Cause each moment feels like a lifetime to me

To me.

Look at my eyes can't you see that I want you Can't help the way I react, it's who I am
And I can't apologise for that, just look at my eyes

Singing your chorus, and I hope that you hear my
words
'Cause they are all that's holding me to you right now
So tell me that I'm alright, so I can sleep tonight
In this bed that we share, I lie alone

And I still hear every word that you said to me
And I still hear your voice in my mind it's crystal clear
Now that you're gone all I'm left with is silence
I will be always waiting for you

I will, I'll always wait for you
I'll always wait for you
I'll always wait for you

And, now, you've got me caught
On every single word that's leaving your lips (that's leaving your lips)

Every, every word is yours

And, now, you've got me caught
On every single word that's leaving your lips (that's leaving your lips)
Every, every word is yours

May the angels lead you home
May the angels lead you home

May the angels lead you home, back home to me
May the angels lead you home, back home to me

May the angels lead you home.

Singing (screaming) your chorus, and I hope that you hear my words (hope you hear my words)
'Cause they are all that's holding me to you right now So tell me that I'm alright (So tell me I'm alright), so I can sleep tonight (so I can sleep tonight)
In this bed that we share, I lie alone

I lie alone, I'm lying here alone
I'm lying here alone
