Verse:

From the first time I layed eyes on you
You looked at me and than I knew What more can I ask from a girl like you You're the angel that makes me think everything's gonna be alright
When I stumble your love is there to pick me up and keep me here

Chrorus:

It's you, you make my dreams come true
It's you, I miss you it's the truth

Verse:

And now it's six o'clock in the morning
And your sleeping, and Im thinking of you
And you'll always be the one to watch me fall asleep
And you'll always be the one to make my life complete
