Ocean blue eyes that tell these lies of love and hate, only complicate this mess I've made waiting by the phone left him all alone with this picture of his heart torn out to remind him it was too good to be true

(chorus)
of love and hate, only complicate(2x) we would have found out what we had but you left without a trace to any place but here love is where your heart is but your heart is with him

Ocean blue eyes never looked like they cared never looked like they wanted it to end
