Step outside
Can feel the warmth
Much stronger than inside
Crazy path that led you here
Creates a place too high.
And I'm scared to be so heartless
I'm hoping that you'll learn
There's only one and that is you
And I'm scared to be so heartless
I'm hoping that you'll learn
There's only one and that is you
Frightened eyes taking the view
Forgetting how it feels
Look around, believe yourself
The world outside is real
And I'm scared to be so heartless
I'm hoping that you'll learn
There's only one and that is you
And I'm scared to be so heartless
I'm hoping that you'll learn
There's only one and that is you
Gave myself to you,
No one can deny
I'm still waiting 'til you be
So content to feel,
Can't despise myself
I'm still waiting 'til
Leave me break my heart
Can't control the pain
I'm still waiting 'til.
