I remember when you came,
I can just recall that day,
Unexpected, undetected,
If I had known I still would have done it,
So little time, so long to wait,
A paradise, within your eyes,
All the things I could tell you,
All the things I could show you,
You're my waking fault,
You're the smile on my lips,
I dream I see your face,
I see and dream of you,
You were safe and warm,
I was in your hands,
We were moved in time,
To another space,
Somewhere, not here,
Somewhere, not here,
So, little time
So, little time
You were safe and warm,
I was in your hands,
We removed in time,
To another space,
A thousand miles away,
I'd like to fly to you,
I mess myself
I dream, I see your face,
I see, I dream of you,
If you were here we'd watch,
If you were here we'd see,
You're my waking fault,
You're the smile on my lips,
You were safe and warm,
I was in your hands,
We were moved in time,
To another space,
Somewhere, not here,
I know you are somewhere, not here,
You're my waking fault,
You're the smile on my lips,

Are you thinking of me
Do I invade your sleep
A paradise, a paradise,
Within your eyes.
I remember when you came,
I can just recall that day,
Somewhere not here,
Somewhere not here,
Somewhere.
