I used to feel so helpless the enemy had such a hold on me I prayed for deliverance and the almighty set me free now I stand condemned before the world with its selfish and evil ways and I know that I struggle sometimes but I have hope that there will be better days sometimes it is so hard to deny my flesh and obey your word but even though I know I still sin you always pick me up again you're always there right by my side you never leave me nor forsake me and I look forward to I long for fellowship with you eternally may the name of the lord be forever praised you love us when we're unlovable draw us nearer to your presence lord your undying love and mercy never ceases to amaze me you intervened for us on our behalf when you died on the cross at Calvary and through your precious blood that was shed you completely provided our amnesty there is salvation in no one else there is no other way to be saved there is no way you can earn your way into heaven entrance is based solely on faith we have a living hope in Jesus Christ we don't have to live in fear anymore no matter what god is in control and he loves you so dearly believe and be saved Amen
