I saw a light tonight
it shined mighty bright
dsw it through my open door
while i heard a thundring roar of something that exploded down there. So I have been in confused fear.
Got Up and followed that blood - red shine
'cause I felt a warning sign.
Yeah - it seemed to be Yeah - big misery!
Oh, that house was burning down
couldn't see if there's somebody'round.
I got a dreadful feeling deep inside oh, i just tried ...
I was running for my life
to save the sleeping children and wife.
But when i reached that burning house
I was standing in front of a crowd of helpless people were staying around
they watched the flames and their crying was loud.
I asked a man, who was standing near by.
How could it happen, when and why?
He said, Yeah - it seems to be Yeah - big misery!

It's burning down it's burning down to the ground.

It's a lot of pain when you see it was all in vain.

They worked every day, every night, every hour in their life.

With a faith that we all have before it's getting late

but you see how it can be, when you're thinking

you are free, and you're proud

what you've donw

that's a fraud - it could be gone

"Take care of illusion - it shares with confusion"

Look, you are young, and i think you are not the only one who would help with that faith

that i meant before it's late.

So go, try you're best, save their life,

you can't save their happiness!

Yeah - It's up to you

Yeah - try to get through!

Oh, they have been still alive

and soon they opened up their eyes.

As they remembered, they began to moan,

No, that man was not wrong
