Go!

I'm on the edge and I breaking through these walls,
another minute and we'll watch the rise and fall.
We let you drive us to a deceitful decent,
so now we'll burn this fucker down.

Hold on tight! This sirens coming.
This stranglehold! Stopped me from running.
Stripped from my chains! My feet a weeping.
Severed ties! Their guns are sleeping.

Cage in the beast it can watch the guilty hang we'll break apart the kings from the men
Lay down the crown, watch their heads roll off
Yeah now we'll rip them limb from limb

Hold on tight! This sirens coming.
This stranglehold! Stopped me from running.
Stripped from my chains! My feet a weeping.
Severed ties! Their guns are sleeping.

One more day, one more dead
One more day, one more dead
One more day, one more dead
One more day, one more dead

Hold on tight! This sirens coming.
This stranglehold! Stopped me from running.
Stripped from my chains! My feet a weeping.
Severed ties! Their guns are sleeping.
