In this strange tangle of love
Im learning how to see
In this weird change of space
Im learning to believe
In his life im living
I feel you helping me

If i were a monster
Would you wince when you looked at me
If i were a freak, would you stare
If i were a leper, would you stay unclean
If i was lost, would you help me get free

Time and space are closing in
Its turning me weak
You and me out making friends
Just learning how to be
I learn from you and your watching me
This is the way to be

If i were a monster
Would you wince when you looked at me
If i were a freak, would you stare
If i were a leper, would you stay unclean
If i was lost...

This is real, this is now i dont want to go
I hold on, you let go will i never know

If i were a monster
Would you wince when you looked at me
If i were a freak, would you stare

When i am a monster you never wince when you look at me
When i am a freak you never stare
When i am a leper you never stay unclean
When i am lost, when i am lost
You come and set me free

Are you ready to live your life Are you healed enough

Can you stop Can you stop and enjoy the ride
