I never really thought I'd want to know
I never thought I'd end this stand, but you know
It's hard for me to just ignore
Oh, it's just a matter of time
Before I take your phone and I'll call everyone you know
So hate me for letting go
But you'll leave me if I try to stay

Oh, give it up, give it up, Jessica
Oh, won't you just let me go?
All the secrets you keep
And the words that you speak
Mean more to me than you'll know
Oh, give it up, give it up, Jessica
Oh, won't you just let me go?
All the secrets you keep inside
Mean more to me
They mean more to me than you'll know

Are living a lie, or are you living away?
Doesn't always own just a place to stay
So let's just stop and rewind
Before I lose my mind
Before I don't wanna hear you say
It's the worst of our types that go
The worst who stay

Oh, give it up, give it up, Jessica
Oh, won't you just let me go?
All the secrets you keep
And the words that you speak
Mean more to me than you'll know
Oh, give it up, give it up, Jessica
Oh, won't you just let me go?
All the secrets you keep inside
Mean more to me
They mean more to me than you'll know

You tear apart my mind
And make me wonder where you are
But I still remember everything

That happened before dawn
I'm begging you for honesty
And all you're spitting out are lies
Do you even have an alibi?
I don't know, I don't know

(Oh, give it up, give it up, Jessica)
(Oh, give it up, give it up, Jessica)

Oh, give it up, give it up, Jessica
Oh, won't you just let me go?
All the secrets you keep inside
Mean more to me
They mean more to me than you'll know
Oh, give it up, give it up, Jessica
Oh, give it up, give it up for Jessica
All the secrets you keep
And the words that you speak
Mean more to me
You mean more to me than you'll know
More to me
You mean more to me than you'll know
