pick up the pieces that i've left behind i woke up today feeling older and never so much better i know i talk in circles i never wanted to avoid your conversation you see yourself in my eyes another day has passed us by the more time i spend, the less i see of you i'll never take it back your voice is like an angel guiding over every move i make i'll never want it back the direction that you've gave me nothing can replace what i've gained time grabs me by the shoulders no one know how it feels to move over i know i'm still far from you and it feels like i'm still far from home my name is a disappointment i only disappoint myself if only i could hold this moment kept from everyone else.
