2x

It turned out you were the precious
And the sour from you becomes sweeter
You're returning
A hundred welcomes from me
Its enough of throwing the greetings around i'm just a little mad come closer and closer
The sweet honey eyes woke up the passion in me

2x

Come Come closer to me so i can hold you
How how have you the heart to leave me all these days?
Oh my heart i missed you a lot
And i wont to tell you more but i i'm not finding the words

2x

Oh the nights i waited for you
At the door i will imagine you
Whitout purpose i forgave you
I forgat my madness right away
Maybe we got mad and we said some things
But we couldn't take the confusion and cruelty

2x

Come Come closer to me so i can hold you
How how have you the heart to leave me all these days?
Oh my heart i missed you a lot
And i wont to tell you more but i i'm not finding the words
