"A Friend"

this is dedicated to a friend- a real friend- we haven't forgotten yet we miss you...

pain and anger fills my mind the tears I've cried can fill an ocean oh so deep it hurts inside questions that have not been answered questions that I fear so long will it be, will it be like before no pleasure without pain- pain your heart will feel the ease again together we will make it through the day say you'll be there when the night turns too dark give me your hand when I'm in need of a friend

here
so far away but in my mind you are near takin'day by day no sorrow live today not for tomorrow a crying shame tell me who's to blame I took for granted everyday you voice and laughters in my ear why oh why must it be this way

give me your hand when I'm in need of a friend

I don't know what to do, what to say- I miss you very much-why, why do you have to leave us this way-cause you're a friend and we haven't forgotten yet we all miss you very much- why- does it have to be this way?

say you'll be there...
