In this life I expect to be let down.
Won't let it hold me back.
Look up to no one from now on. Heroes.
A thing of the past. No love for phonies and fakes.
I refuse to look for guidance from you.
Only hate is all I have left in me I'm comin' through
With the truth.
No love for you! No fronts. Just truth!
Throughout you life. Your heroes turn to shit.

No truth spoken. Their worlds so hypocritical.
With each let down I fuel the fire of my rage.
It gives me strength to fight. Another day.
A Fake Front. No way to live your Life.
I only spit truth until the day I die.
I'll never turn my back. Forever built to last.
We're takin' over and you're a thing of the past.
You're a thing of the past!
