"January Again"

It must be January again
Are you having the same feelings
I am [x2]
It must be January again

The season's trying to tell me something
Can't wait for it
For all this to come green
Before we fall to engine

I know your mind's set on something
And I just can't find what it is
Or where it will be
I always feel it coming [x2]

Hanging off the ride
Until it ends

I'll be hanging on to this
Until the end
Until the vary end
I'll be hanging on to this
Until the end
Until the vary end

... until January comes again
