dear circumstance have you no remorse by providence i make my way inside the chaos leave my fate to sails to only make the progress weather will allow set my course for shores carried on a promise forward on the hope should i falter the only sound you'll hear is mayday mayday the fortunes i've been handed live on only in the mirror spin miracles into the finest cloth ask for no reprieve mother your invention father what it breeds should i falter the only sound you'll hear is
only in the mirror
