Let Me Out lyrics
I found some peace today
I grit my teeth
And swallow all my pain and selfish pride
I use to hide behind

[Chorus]
Let me out, let me out I'm singing
Let me out, let me out I'm singing
I'm a liar and a cheat in prison
Accused of telling the truth [X2]

flames of pain stained paint my eyes Child alone since his face won't lie
Time burns my soles decay grey Sifting through the smoking lies Swimming exhale in out love that's died first and last ain't ever the same, so I'll keep on singing this
I don't care if you're right or if I'm always wrong
Just want to sing my song before this whole world

[Chorus X2]

Now and forever
I stand to sever all ties and connections to recollections of pain and fear Family, society, authority, and every peer Swallowing tears, lying in my stomach Getting free-er every second eroding and exploding all this corporatus! That's right here now.

Metal prison bars block out minds
Your truths all televise
I never bought it and I won't play your games, for fame Are we just rats in a in a bothersome zoo, scraping for cheese in a maze made to lose
I know I'm not and I won't eat your food
I don't care if your right or if I'm always wrong,
Just want to sing my song before this whole world

goes...gone

[Chorus]
