Day comes with it's golden eye-eye-eye
Warms me as I stumble to your shore
And I stop and I wonder why-y-y
So many things about you I enjoy
Lover, day by any na-a-ame
I know you will remai-ai-ain
Ever-er changin' but always the same
And you never let me dow-ow-own
You keep on comin' arou-ou-ound
Lover, there's nothin' about you I would change
Small towns all arou-ou-ound
You know you are the measure of our lives
The country cities, so very pre-etty
Imagine the sun through day and bright
Lover, day by any na-a-ame
I know you wi-ill remai-ai-ain
Ever-er changin' but always the same
And you'll never let me dow-ow-own
You keep on comin' arou-ou-ound
Lover, there's nothin' about you I would change
Twilight comes slowly

As you turn your head and gently conform

And not whi-ile you're still here-ere-ere

You'll keep on shinin' on to warm us all

Keep on shinin' on to warm us all

Lover, day by any na-a-ame

I know you will remai-ai-ain

Ever-er changin' but always the same

Lover, there is nothing I would change

Lover, there is nothing about you I would change

Lover, there's nothing about you I would change (fade)
