"Forever Now"

Don't try to be sorry, don't worry if your weird,
Just try to wear a smile on your face.
In a different city, trying to set new goals your are Lonely, loneliness...

But every day your life it's gaining sense 'cuz you Remember every word you're heard, you connect every Feeling and you hate being serious, and this your new Deal, further... ideal, 'cuz now it's time to listen up...

You will recycle once again to something better, you're

Optimistic to the bone, will be forever now, you're not Afraid of the chains your breaking.

But drama appears when you feel alone, then you shoot
Your civil straight to a wall, and you show yourself in Violence...
When the light is out, when the flesh is weak, when Reality is something hard to fit in you show your self
In violence...
