Since I have received your letter, every effort, every Word
Is no more a mean, it's just an aim, I'm waiting
Impatient for your call.

I can't hold myself, I'm no start, I'm no end...
But don't yet knock at my door, I've been waiting so
Long but something has changed, I think I can control
Myself,
I can control myself.

My last wish for individuals, I hope that I'm not
Pointing too far,
Take control back on your own, raise united, dream
Together, don't you ever be divided!

I can't hold myself, I'm no start, I'm no end...
I've been waiting so long, don't knock at my door 'cuz
Something has changed I feel I can control myself
I can control myself.

We must control ourselves.
I've said my wish I can be dead. Kill me sweatly, death.
