Start again Satan is in, witch trials begin once again
Christian society can't see eye to eye with me Mentally I'll using Satan as an excuse to kill in his Name once again baby's blood spills on to the tile
Cracks in your smile cameras on but your guest suspects
Can't respond to
Your accusations close
Your eyes to reality an obscenity hyping Christian
Fear so the truth you can not hear but what they fear
The most is the shadow inside themselves
Building up pressure that has to be released Christians kill but the church is not blamed in the Least satanic scapegoats blamed for evil created By all man created created to sell selling your Virgin whore television media spewing satanic propaganda

Into your mouth
And eyes maggots
Into flys into your mouth and eyes may demons
Fuck your rotting asshole in christian hell flesh Burning it starts to swell start again Satan is in Your ass bastard your no journalist Satan
Abortions raising fear for network ratings so
There you go again forgetting all your sin blame
The innocent for other's insane crimes scapegoat
No hope...
