Well maybe I should just move
Well maybe I should just use
When is it good to kill a memory
Of me and you
It aint over 'til it's over
That's what she said
I see you walking the streets at night
She'd be better off dead

No one can hear me scream in my head (x2)
I see it, I see it, I won't let go (x2) Go

But it's alright
I don't wanna fight
With myself no more
Because I keep on winning
So I give in
And there you are again
Lookin' like an angel, but you're fucking Satan

No one can hear me scream in my head (x2)
I see it, I see it, I won't let go (x2) No

I'm deaf to the silence (x2)

No one can hear me scream
No one can hear me scream
No one can hear me scream in my head (x2)
I see it, I see it, I won't let go (x2) Go

I'm deaf to the silence? (x2)
Forever
Forever
Forever
