I, I've got a feeling -- Deeper emotion
I'm not the only one -- Soak up the pain -- Until it's gone

Time, where have you gone now -- Cherish the moment Sweet are the sorrows -- Soak up the pain -- Until it's gone

Time where have you gone now
Seems just like yesterday caught up with you
Up with you

So predict my heartache -- Songs of love gone wrong
And in the end it's tragic -- But so appropriate indeed
Nevertheless, the ending is fate

Barely alive -- Afraid of feeling
Pick me apart now -- Find someone else to blame
Wallow in shame until it's gone

As we wait for the next forever
Perhaps our day we'll finally find
And my these hearts never surrender
If they're truly meant to shine
You walked out that front door
Into the back of my mind
