Burning with fires fuelled by broken backs and broken
Minds
We find that stories of our race are not blind
With a good intention (and open hearts)
We walk through the hatred and past lies,
To find the dragon rising with the knowledge shining in
His eyes,
Now it's time to realize
Human of our kind

With the system around breathing and eating
We leave their wars and destruction behind
Move to a place (no longer slaves)
Free and educated we stand not blind
Now it's time to realize human of our kind

Easy like going home
Easy like being stoned
Easy eye to eye easy burning in the inner fire

Bright like fire

Burn inspire

Chor: I believe in your goodness

I believe in you
