Shall we begin? it's showtime
The invitation is for the beautiful you
How does one game sound?
Please allow me some of your time
Do you consent to the rule book
Compassion is a useless affection
You want a favor from me?
Penalties are inevitable
You can't turn back the hands of the clock
I've already put my cards into play

Joker!
A girl on the verge of tears

Joker!
A sign of the shaken world

Joker!
Pleasant circumstances have risen

Joker!
Two girls have disappeared

This is a new world for you
The darkness dissolves amongst a sea of trees
I'm already having critical expectations
Well what are you feeling now?
I gave you unbreakable love, asking nothing in return
The cards have already been put into play

Joker!

Joker!

Joker!

Joker!
The light dimmed into a glow

Joker!
Recovering from an agitated anger

Joker!
Restraining the limbs it's effected

Joker!
The two people keep still expressions

Joker!
A girl on the verge of tears

Joker!
A morning star of the dead was visible

Joker!
Pleasant circumesatnces have risen

Joker!
The two girls ran away together
