You were waiting for me
When I opened that door
On a search for someone
I'd never known before
You gave me your heart
With arms opened wide
You touched a part of myself
I'd left so far behind

All my life
All my life
Your love will be with me
All my life

I never had dreamed
I never had hoped
To be blessed with your love
To be held so close
You took me inside
The past that is mine
You showed me a place
Where I can abide

All your life
All your life
My love will be with you
All your life

All our lives
All our lives
Our love will be with us
All our lives
