Never would I have imagined
Never would I have dreamed
One solitary moment
Would lead to such a wondrous change
An unforeseen encounter
An event without esteem
One regarded without interest
Now changed the course of history

Chorus
And in that one moment
You entered my life
You changed me forever
You changed my view of life
And in that one moment
The world seemed a different place
My life started over
It was in that one moment

Thinking I had it together
Touching the winner's brass ring
My eyes set on the river
As I pass the quiet stream
Then it happened without warning
Fate disguised as every day
Changed my life at once forever
When I discovered you that day

Chorus

And suddenly all I'd known
Seemed on a distant shore
A memory of another life
And everything I held so close
It's value was lost
Diminished by the treasure that I found in you

Chorus x2
