It's funny I keep telling myself
I know I'll be fine
My heart so heavy baby
Can't get you out of my mind
Friends keep saying
You've got to give it some time
The pain will end sooner or later
Then things will be fine
but i wonder

Chorus
My heart is breaking
Why can't I leave you behind
It's empty inside me
The heartache I feel all the time
My heart is breaking
Why can't I leave you behind
It's empty inside me
The heartache I feel all the time
My heart is breaking

I wake up every morning baby
Thinking of you
I go through my day staying busy
If I don't I'll go crazy missing you
Times moving slowly
It's messing with my mind
I go to bed lonely
With thoughts of you in my mind

Chorus

The fighting was too much
It needed to end
The hardest thing I've ever done
Was to never see you again
How could it be over
But it couldn't go on
To make it without you
I know I've got to be strong
