Are you happy that you found somebody new
I told you I was glad but I lied to you
Did you see the pain that was in my smile
And after all this time it hurts the same
Guess it doesn't matter now
Where to place the blame
Gotta learn to let go when I close my eyes

Chorus

Cause if I had nine lives
It still would be this way
If I had nine lives
I'd fall in love with you again
Even though I know it's a big mistake

There's a part of what we had
I will not forget
There's a way of looking back
With no regret
It's a choice that I've made
For the rest of my life
Sometimes you think it's right
Even though it's wrong
And I know that there's no use in holding on
Gotta learn to let go when I close my eyes

Chorus

Now the past is gone
I feel no shame inside
Only moving on
From all those wasted tears I've cried

Chorus
