(Do do doot do da
Do do doot do da)

Just about the time that you
Have the whole world figured out,
That would be the time that you
Enter in a season of doubt, I'll tell you
That every time those thoughts begin to enter your mind
Your Father picks you up again and that's how you find,
oh, that...

God loves you.
You know it, you know it, you know it, know it, ooh that
God loves you, yeah
Forever and ever and ever, ever.

You know just how cold it feels
When there's no hope left in sight...
All alone and scared, you pray
For strength to make it through the night, remember
When every turn you take just leaves you cold in the dark
Light breaks through and shows you He was there all along, 'cause...

God loves you.
You know it, you know it, you know it, know it, oh-oh
God loves you, yeah
Forever and ever and ever, ever (yeay)

You never really wanted to believe it was true.
You never really thought that this could happen to you.
But just as soon as you begin to throw up your hands,
Your Father whispers gently and then you understand,
oh
(God loves you.
You know it, you know it, you know it, know it) Yeay.
(God loves you always will and always will...)

(Forever and ever and ever, ever.)

Don't you know that God (loves you.)

(You know it, you know it, you know it, know it) Yeah, oh.

(God loves you) Oh, God loves you.

(Forever and ever and ever, ever)

(God loves you

You know it, you know it, you know it, know it...)
