Been tryin' to build a rubber house so we all can live together

Been tryin' to build a rubber house so we all can live together

Don't you wanna put the hammer down

Take a break from all the pressure

Whatever, whatever, whatever, whatever

We can take a groove, make it lose, we can prove

That we're for real this time, we got nothin' to hide

We can work the room, make it boom, turn it into

A place where the future finds somethin' from our time

All we have to do is come into a place anew

Where we can blur the lines, elevate our minds

In my head I see a kinda dream, a place where we can live

Move, have our being, set the torch on fire

Oh, please, we can make it better, I know it really matters

Wouldn't it be a trip to live in such a place, you and I?

Been tryin' to build a rubber house so we all can live together

Been tryin' to build a rubber house so we all can live together

Don't you wanna put the hammer

Down take a break from all the pressure

Whatever, whatever, whatever, whatever

Hands up in the air if you dare, we don't care

If it brings you to your knees, it's alright by me

Love will find you still, it's in his will for us to build

One voice, one single gift and lift it up down here

And we, we gotta get together, really gotta get with

I could betcha I'll be tellin' you again and again

Been tryin' to build a rubber house so we all can live together

Been tryin' to build a rubber house so we all can live

together
Don't you wanna put the hammer
Down take a break from all the pressure
Whatever, whatever, whatever, whatever

After we've been here, one thousand years, one hundred years
We've no less song to sing, merry, our song
In the words of Rodney King, y'all

Why can't we all just get along?
Blacks, Caucasians, Asians and Latinos
Palestinians, Arabs, Jews and Filipinos
We actin' like mobsters, we runnin' casinos in Reno Pretendin' like we'd die for our brother but we [Incomprehensible]

This for my people, take heed to this lesson
Put down the aggression
And pick up all these words that I'm now manifestin' Let's make a difference, help the homeless and prisoners in prison
Instead of speakin' words of hatred that are mean and explicit

Who's down to visit the widows and call for lessons?
The essence of love is precious
Take some time to bless 'em with your presents
Let's start advancin' at love, peace and equality
Take it from me, T-bone, dawg, is my philosophy

We, we can make it better, know it gonna get a little better
If we ever come together, we will find this place forever, you and I

Been tryin' to build a rubber house so we all can live
together
Been tryin' to build a rubber house so we all can live
together
Don't you wanna put the hammer down
Take a break from all the pressure
Whatever, whatever, whatever, whatever

Been tryin' to build a rubber house so we all can live
together
Been tryin' to build a rubber house so we all can live
together
Don't you wanna put the hammer down
Take a break from all the pressure
Whatever, whatever, whatever, whatever
