So unlike me, what's going on I'm usually not the one
To be afraid, hesitate, second guess
What I've done
Am I overthinking it, complicating it Should I let go and let it be

Never done this before how am I supposed to know where to go from here
No prescription, no rules, no direction, no signs that will make it clear
Like the first man on the moon, Columbus 1492
Like baby steps and babies don't worry, so why should I
Uncharted territory
Uncharted territory

Sort of unprepared, just a little scared
Say go get it girl, grab a hold of it
Look inside myself
Find buried deep
Patience don't give up on me
Am I overthinkin' it, complicating it
All I gotta do is do it

Never done this before how am I supposed to know
where to go from here
No prescription, no rules, no direction, no signs that
will make it clear
Like the first man on the moon, Columbus 1492
Like baby steps and babies don't worry, so why should I
Uncharted territory
Uncharted territory
When I'm on uncharted territory
Uncharted territory

Never done this before how am I supposed to know
where to go from here
No prescription, no rules, no direction, no signs that
will make it clear
Like the first man on the moon, Columbus 1492
Like baby steps and babies don't worry, so why should I

Like the first man on the moon, Columbus 1492
Like baby steps and babies don't worry, so why should I
Uncharted territory
Uncharted territory
When I'm on uncharted territory
