Love is so demanding
So much harder now
Peace comes from understanding
But it's harder now
You look like an angel
No longer now
Would you agree there's not anything
Around the heal this pain

It's such a big blow
Why should anyone else wanna
Know
Why it's such a big blow
Why should anyone else find out

Love looks like you want her
Til you hold her down
You used to love me
No longer now
I would agree there's not anything
Around to heal this pain

It's such a big blow

Why would anyone else wanna know
Why it's such a big blow
Why should anyone else find out

Love, so destroyed
You give so much time
I really ought to know
Where all this goes

So much harder now
So much harder now

It's such a big blow
It's such a big blow
Would you agree there's not
Anything around to heal this Pain

It's such a big blow
Why would anyone else wanna
Know
(I don't know)
Why it's such a big blow
Why would anyone else find
Out
