"Don't"

I can understand all that you are
I can even take all that you're not
I can sympathize with all you want to be
But don't fuck me in front of me

I can even scores with the best of them
I can leave my innocence at bay
You can turn your back on my sincerity
But don't fuck me in front of me

[Incomprehensible], they wait
I saw the look you gave her
Breathing in, begin again
[Incomprehensible] the world do say you're hurt

I could say I blame you for everything
Instead I think I'll recognize my part
Needing doesn't hide who I want to be
But don't fuck me in front of me
Yeah, don't fuck me in front of me
