It's been a long time we haven't seen each other
And now I've come to you so we could talk things over Those moments I remember the things I shouldn't do
I realize I made mistake it's true

It's been a long time since I've been talking to myself
Here's a chance I'm with you to let you know what's in my heart
Giving you was a big mistake I know what I have lost Now baby believe me there's a feeling that I just can't hide

Tell me you still love me
And it's still the same
All those things are over
We'll leave them in the past

Tell me you still love me
And it's still the same
All those things are over
We'll leave them in the past

Because then I wasn't sure of you
But now I realize my feelings for you
Are gathered all it's clear
My love it's true

It's been a long time since I've been talking to myself
Here's a chance I'm with you to let you know what's in
my heart
Leaving you was a big mistake I know what I have lost
And now baby believe me there's a feeling that I just can't hide

Tell me you still love me
And it's still the same
All those things are over
We'll leave them in the past

Tell me you still love me
And it's still the same

All those things are over
We'll leave them in the past

Because then I wasn't sure of you
But now I realize my feelings for you
Are gathered all it's clear

So won't you
Tell me you still love me
And it's still the same
All those things are over
We'll leave them in the past

Tell me you still love me
And it's still the same
All those things are over
We'll leave them in the past

Because then I wasn't sure of you
But now I realize my feelings for you
They're gathered all it's clear
My love it's true...
