I can feel your breathing, even from out of space (meaning: even from a far)

I won't ever miss\give up on (seeing the) sunsets with you

And there is no other, that will understand my hungry heart

To be just yours

Look at us, look at the leaves

Because the sky won't take it a way from us

Look at us, look at both of us

Even the sky are saying\testifying that I am yours

The serenity\calmness\ the peacefulness with you

I will not change for another thing

My heart is thirsty just for you

And there are no words, that could describe

You are a different love

(when I am) with you, the pain disappears
